Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we determined you're exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). Donors can deduct contributions they make to you under IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under Section 2055, 2106, or 2522. This letter could help resolve questions on your exempt status. Please keep it for your records.

Organizations exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined you're a public charity under the IRC Section listed at the top of this letter.

Based on the information you submitted with your application, we approved your request for reinstatement under Revenue Procedure 2014-11. Your effective date of exemption, as listed at the top of this letter, is the postmark date of your application.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that you're required to file Form 990/990-EZ/990-N, our records show you're required to file an annual information return (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ) or electronic notice (Form 990-N, the e-Postcard). If you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. This is essential for ensuring the integrity of the financial data and for providing a clear audit trail.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data. These methods include both qualitative and quantitative approaches, each with its own strengths and limitations.

3. The third part of the document describes the process of data collection and analysis. This involves identifying the sources of data, gathering the data, and then analyzing it to draw meaningful conclusions.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of data quality. High-quality data is essential for accurate analysis and for making informed decisions.

5. The fifth part of the document outlines the various methods used to ensure data quality. These methods include data validation, data cleaning, and data auditing.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of data security. Data security is essential for protecting sensitive information and for ensuring the confidentiality of the data.

7. The seventh part of the document outlines the various methods used to ensure data security. These methods include data encryption, data backup, and data access control.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the importance of data privacy. Data privacy is essential for protecting individual information and for ensuring that data is used only for the purposes for which it was collected.

9. The ninth part of the document outlines the various methods used to ensure data privacy. These methods include data anonymization, data pseudonymization, and data minimization.

10. The tenth part of the document discusses the importance of data governance. Data governance is essential for ensuring that data is managed in a consistent and effective manner.
